ABOUT US

LEBENLANG

About LEBENLANG

Welcome to LEBENLANG – your reliable partner for high-quality household and kitchen products. Our products combine stylish design, high quality and fair prices. The name LEBENLANG ("lifelong") stands for our promise to accompany our customers for the long term and to make their everyday lives easier in a lasting way.

Our values

LEBENLANG is more than just a brand. As an owner-managed company with roots in Cologne, we combine personal customer care with an excellent infrastructure. Our team develops and designs the products at our Cologne site. As a matter of course, this always takes place under fair working conditions and with high standards of functionality and durability. We focus on well-thought-out, practical solutions and a timelessly modern design that offers real added value.

Our customer service is a central part of what we offer. With a multilingual team based in Germany, we provide competent, individual and helpful support. Customer satisfaction is our top priority – which is why we take feedback seriously and continuously improve our offering.

At home in Cologne

LEBENLANG is firmly rooted in Cologne. This is where we develop and design our products, and where our team is based – with short distances and personal contacts for our customers and partners.

Our promise

Our founders are convinced that every customer deserves full attention. With LEBENLANG, we offer not only high-quality products but an all-round positive customer experience that makes everyday life easier and more beautiful – ideally for a lifetime.
